Essential Home on the way to Paris Maison et Objet Paris, FRANCE, 20-24 JAN

For the second consecutive year, Essential Home will be present at one of the world's largest interior design trade shows: Maison et Objet.
This will be a special edition for us, we commemorate our first anniversary.
For the celebration to be even bigger, we are preparing a set of surprises for you, such as the presentation of the new Diamond mirrors, for example.
Entering the Essential Home Stand will be a unique experience where visitors will have the opportunity to take a trip back in time to midcentury, among more than 50 products.
During your visit to our stand you will have the opportunity to contact our team of professionals who will give you all the information about the brand and the products that we have, in a boho chic environment.

Come into the Midcentury Modern World!
