ESSENTIAL HOME UNVEILS THE ULTIMATE COLOR TRENDS FOR A MID-CENTURY SPRING

Christmas and New Year's eve are good and cozy, but we are all a little bit tired of the dark colors, and now that the Spring cleaning mood is starting to surface, it is time to swap the heavy charcoals and indigos for brighter, breezier shades.

For the Spring collection, Essential Home was inspired by Pantone's key color trends for 2018. From bright and vivid to earthy and soft, next year's choices are exciting and happy, just like some of the Essential Home's fabrics and accessories.

From all the design trends for the upcoming year, colors hold a steady spot at the top of our list. After all, they set the tone for which furniture we buy, what decor we invest in, and the overall mood of our designs.

ESSENTIAL HOME - THE BRAND

Essential Home is an innovative mid-century modern furniture brand that takes important historical and cinematographic references from the 1930s and 1960s and turns them into unique furnishing pieces. What started out as 'Essentials' in 2015, a furniture collection by the mid-century lighting brand DelightFull, quickly grew to be one of the most elegant representations of mid-century modern design, thus creating a new name, and a new brand, Essential Home.

Essential Home gathers inspiration not only from the glamorous Hollywood life of the 1940s, but also from the everyday life that defined that mid-century generation. Simple details such as the sleek lines of a futuristic 1960s chair, or retro ads that defined an era can be pinpointed in iconic pieces such as 'Monocles sideboard
